

The management and staff of KWRD 100.7 FM - The Word are pleased to congratulate Bob Rountree, the producer and show host of American Success Stories for 15 years of outstanding service to his clients and the listeners of our radio station.

Bob Rountree has written hundreds of stories featuring men and women from all walks of life. The consistent theme of American Success Stories has been to emphasize character-based qualities of success. These stories are accentuated by local examples of character-based lives and serve as role models for both adults and their children of how important it is to do what's right in daily living and relationships with clients and customers.

In all the years Bob has spoken through the microphones of KWRD 100.7 FM - The Word, we have never received a complaint of any kind. As a result of the broadcasts of American Success Stories, thousands of our listeners have called to ask for more information as to how his broadcasts may provide further help to them; Bob has established excellent client relationships with them.

Again, it is our pleasure to be affiliated with Bob Rountree in his ongoing service to our listeners and we wish him every continued success here at 100.7 FM – The Word, as he continues to recognize his clients in American Success Stories.
